

Provisional Schedule for the

The 2020 Coollattin Homeward Trek 5th -12th September

This is an active tour schedule with plenty of walking involved.

This schedule is subject to change following consultation with our visiting group.

Be prepared for surprises like pop-up flash mob theatre during the course of the week!

Day	Event
Saturday 5th September	Pick up in Gorey - from Airport bus - and transfer to accommodation. Check in to accommodation. Welcome BBQ & Introductions at Minmore Mews, Shillelagh @5pm by Michael Kelly
Sunday 6th September	Depart Minmore @12 noon Historical Walking Tour of Carnew. Lunch in Pooles Carnew @ 2.30pm 'How to Research your Coollattin Roots' Workshop with Kevin Lee in Minmore Mews.
Monday 7th September	The 19th Century Fabric of Coollattin Estate Tour. Public Buildings, Middlemen Houses, Lower class houses, Schools, Churches etc Lunch in The Tinahely Farm Shop 1.30 pm Ending with a drive past Coollattin House Illustrated history talk by Christiaan Corlett in Minmore Mews.7.30pm
Tuesday 8th September	Day trip to Kilkenny The Kilkenny Famine Experience in MacDonagh Junction Visit to the Majestic Kilkenny Castle Lunch/Dinner Tour of Smithwicks Brewery
Wednesday 9th September	Tour of Ferns Castle @ 10.15am- 11.30 approx Visit to the Dunbrody Famine Ship New Ross or Walking Tour of New Ross town. Input on the Coollattin clearances prior to boarding the famine ship. Lunch in the Dunbrody Restaurant BBQ in Minmore Mews in the pm

Thursday 10th September	Remembering our Ancestors' -Ecumenical Service at the spectacular Bronze Age Rathgall Ring Fort- @ 12noon. Lunch in Rathwood Home & Garden Centre 1.30pm approx Visit to The Dying Cow Pub Reenactment of an American Wake in the House of Stories
Friday 11th September	Genealogy session with Catherine Wright Wicklow County Council in Minmore Mews Homestead visits. Victorian Gala Dinner in Pooles Carnew @6pm
Saturday 12th September	Check out Minmore Mews at 1100 hrs Bus to Gorey to connect with Wexford Airport Bus

Historical and genealogical guidance is available throughout the week of the Coollattin Homeward Trek 2020.

Welcome to Wicklow
Eleanor & Kevin Lee
www.coollattincanadianconnection.com